

Strategic Sponsor Revenue Share Disclosure

AEWM receives compensation, known as “revenue sharing,” from certain third-party product providers or sponsors (“Strategic Sponsors”) for providing marketing and/or educational support services related to the Sponsor’s product(s). Our Strategic Sponsors include various investment-related companies that provide products available to investment adviser representatives (“IARs”) on AEWM’s platform, including mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, and model portfolios. AEWM’s marketing support may include providing Sponsors access to certain information about our business and the opportunity to have more frequent interactions with our IARs through training, marketing support, and educational presentations for the purpose of relationship building and increasing familiarity with their product. In addition to our Strategic Sponsors, there are product sponsors that do not have a revenue-sharing arrangement with AEWM but nevertheless receive similar marketing support treatment.

These revenue-sharing payments are typically calculated as a fixed fee, as an annual percentage of the amount of assets invested in the product, as an annual percentage of revenue earned on invested assets, or as a percentage of the management fee on the assets invested in the product. Additionally, AEWM has the opportunity to receive additional payments if and when the assets under management in certain Sponsors’ products reach a certain threshold by a designated time period. The marketing support agreement with each Sponsor will indicate the payment terms details. The revenue received from Sponsors helps AEWM fund the cost of conducting due diligence on product providers, hosting seminars or educational events, providing services to IARs, maintaining accounts, and offering an investment platform for our clients. Strategic Sponsors pay AEWM out of their asset(s), revenue(s), or earning(s) so there is no additional charge to you.

We want you to understand that AEWM’s receipt of revenue-sharing payments on assets within specific investment advisory programs or products creates an inherent conflict of interest for AEWM. These revenue-sharing payments incentivize AEWM to favor products from Sponsors that pay revenue-sharing over other products. Certain registered investment advisers affiliated with AEWM can also benefit from these arrangements. Additionally, AEWM benefits from certain arrangements in which a third-party Strategist’s strategy on AEWM’s platform invests in the Sponsor’s product(s) and AEWM pays the Strategist a portion of that received revenue. Some Strategists are affiliated companies under common ownership and control. Additionally, your IAR receives an indirect benefit due to AEWM’s receipt of these payments, through the IAR’s invitation to, and/or attendance at, sponsored conferences or seminars, and additional education from the Sponsors, as mentioned above. The marketing and educational activities paid for by the Sponsor could lead the IAR to focus more on the Sponsor’s products. However, IARs do not receive any portion of revenue-share payments made to AEWM. Therefore, your IAR has no direct financial incentive to recommend a Strategic Sponsor’s product to you. Additionally, your IAR is required by regulation and AEWM policy to make investment recommendations solely in your best interest. Regardless, product recommendations to any customer are reviewed and approved by internal supervisors who do not have a financial incentive to favor any product or Sponsor and who are also required to act solely in your best interest.

For additional information on a particular Strategic Sponsor, please review the Sponsor’s Statement of Additional Information or ADV 2A Firm Brochure. A full list of our Strategic Sponsors may be found at www.aewealthmanagement.com. For information on non-cash compensation for IARs, please review our Form ADV Part 2A Firm Brochure and Form ADV Part 2A Appendix I Brochure.
